

A Tropical Influence: Francesca Saveri

Metro Gallery

April 28, 2014 – June 6, 2014

Metro Gallery in Reno City Hall hosts an exhibition of paintings by Francesca Saveri. “A Tropical Influence” is a series of brightly colored geometric abstractions inspired by her yearly visits from her home in Berkeley, California to Salvador, Brazil. Using encaustic, a form a painting created by combining pigment with hot wax, Saveri creates fresh images that are playful, organic, and alive.
